VII. Reports

VII.A. Principal(s)

Galyean Principal Report Jan. 19, 2021

- Tutoring started last Wednesday for K-2 students. Thank you to our Tutoring staff who made it successful. The session went really well.
- Parent Teacher conferences are scheduled for Feb. 10th and 11th. Letters will be going out soon.
- I would like to thank Molly Schifeling for all her hard work and dedication. We will miss her and the way she always made us smile. We wish her all the best in her new position.

Wall Principal Report

- Very excited to roll out our PAWS Program with 6th Grade and Kindergarten. I feel like everyone that volunteered is excited and this truly addresses our districts greatest area of need
- 8th graders will be visiting Limestone High School next week on Tuesday and Friday.

- Faculty/Staff Spotlight- Jasmine Sargent: Does a great job relating to our students and communicating with our more challenging kids.
- Kelly Galyean: Has been invaluable the last two weeks as we wind down the 2nd quarter. She really knows her stuff.

VII.B. Superintendent

Tracy Forck shared the news that our partner Simantel, donated $6,500 to Pleasant Valley families in the form of $100 gift cards. Our families responded with gratitude and offers to give back to the community. Tracy also mentioned the Universal Unitarian church was working hard every week to provide food to our families. Tracy also mentioned that Colleen was able to bring in more donations in the form of backpacks filled with personal hygiene products.

VII.C. Board of Education

- Robert Ramoska complimented the Pleasant Valley Intermediate band on their virtual Christmas concert. Commented they did a great job.
- Robert Ramoska thanked Mary Gray for her 21 years of service to the school board.
- Cliff Quine inquired on the status of our sports programs. Mr. Wall and Mrs. Forck shared the information because we are now in Tier 1, basketball can have conditioning, volleyball is allowed to have conditioning, and cheerleading is allowed to have practice as well. As it sits right now, no games can be held.
