- Reviewed the process for RtI assessments
- Shared the percentage of time spent on Tier 2 and Tier 3

- Shared about the different hats they have worn as Tier teachers this year
- Shared the percentage of students in each class currently receiving Tier services

VII.B. Principals

Ms. Galyean's Report:

- We had PT Conferences on February 2 & 3. We were able to make contact with 94% of our parents through Google meets virtual or phone conferences.
- End of the 3rd grading period is March 4 with report cards going home on March 11.
- Vision and hearing at the primary school will be held on February 22.
- Thank you to Kathy Getz for helping out in the kitchen this year during our search for a replacement.

Miss Henegar's report:

- The Student Council is hosting a blood drive at the Intermediate school tomorrow in the gym from 2 - 6 pm. If you are interested in signing up to donate blood, please let Mrs. Barksdale know.
- 7th and 8th grade basketball finished. The coaches and players worked very hard and it was a great season.
- 5th and 6th grade basketball had their first game against Parkview last week and they played hard! That season will be wrapping up in the first week of March.
- Girls volleyball had 8th grade night last night, and they will have regionals at the end of the month.
- We are preparing for IAR testing coming up in March before spring break. Thank you to Mrs. Barksdale and Ms. Gorman for getting all of the accommodations put in for the students along with scheduling the testing, entering all the students, and training the staff.
- A very excited 7th grader saved up all of his panther bucks and chose to duct tape me to the wall in the gym last Friday (pictures are attached). He picked a couple of friends to help and they had a blast. They are now saving up to pie someone in the face.

VII.C. Superintendent

- Mrs. Forck thanked Miss Henegar for her work and adaptation as interim Intermediate School Principal.

VII.D. Board of Education

- Mr. Quine thanked Coach Courtney Michael for stepping in to take over the boys basketball program for the remainder of the season.
- Mr. Quine thanked those behind the scenes, from concession workers, the cheerleading coach, and cheerleaders.
- Mrs. Quine thanked Mr. Keaschall, Miss Henegar, and Mrs. Barrow for a job well done on our 8th grade recognition night.
